Leader Message: What a year... and so glad to be here... I have great news. Because of 2 eye surgeries and 2 new knees..(3years Old now) I hiked the trail of Bridalveil Falls in Yosemite National Park last week. Two years ago I could not do that.. I am so jzzzzzzed. I can see.... And I can walk.. With no pain.. Thank you God.....

So.. I was in Yosemite helping Roy and Cora Gould who was teaching Pastel painting.. I am no to good at that and it was nice taking instructions from Roy.. I mst say that I was pretty proud of my work.. He is an easy teacher to learn from and gives it his all.

Well now I will be the teacher Aug 17 - 22 at Yosemite teaching watercolor/acrylic .. And looking forward to my reception party at the Ansel Adams Gallery on Aug 19th 5pm to 7pm.. What an Honor.

Check out Roy's pictures in this letter to see his reception and his classes . Had a great time.. And ready to go again.. We met people from all over the world...
