Sunday is a fun day planned.. Weather permitting to go to the Bridge and paint the area there. This is a famous covered bridge and will be so much fun to paint.. Roy does both acrylic and Oil and pastels so will be your choice of medium

We will meet at the Oddfellow building at 8 am for coffee and getting everything together.

Lunch at noon by the Rebecca's at the Hall Dinner will be on our own as some people have to leave early

Roy Gould from Southern California and one of the best Plein Air Artist I know.. Will be our teacher for Plein Air.. The photos are in Yosemite where he has taught for 6 years and was honored at the Ansel Adams Gallery last year for showing his Art Work.. Great class planned.. Check his web RoysArt.com

Sunday Afternoon is Watercolor... and we will go to the back of the Hall into the Rose garden and take pictures and get ideas for our watercolor.

I will have some all ready drawn out for those who are shy in drawing.. Plan on 1 pm to 3 pm.. And then we will spend time cleaning up and packing away all our beautiful work.. Come join the fun....
